TULANE STUDY ABROAD FAIR 2019

Programs are available for every major in every Tulane school.

If Tulane offers the language you can find a study abroad program to match. Interested in studying a new language? You can do that too.

Many programs offer the opportunity to conduct independent research with a local faculty member.

Live with a family, in an apartment, or with local students in a residence hall.

Programs can be found in the biggest cities like Shanghai, Buenos Aires, and Cape Town and in small hamlets and towns like Duisburg and Merida.

Many programs will assist you in finding internships that can help you gain valuable work experience and network while abroad.
